

CASA Supervisor – Washington County JOB POSTING

Who We Are and What We Do: Founded in 1986, CASA for Children is Oregon’s largest and longest serving CASA organization, representing Multnomah, Washington, Columbia, and Tillamook Counties and almost one-quarter of Oregon’s foster children. Through training and mentorship, we empower community members to stand up for children who have experienced abuse or neglect and champion their best interests in court. We dedicate our resources to recruiting, training, and supporting volunteers in order to provide quality advocacy to as many children as we can.
